

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Z Changemaker Project is a chance for creative minds to explore their potential with guidance from industry experts and drive social change through creative expression.

Campaign Registration Timeline: 24th July – 20th October

Rights of Usage: Every entrant will retain copyrights/ rights to reproduction of their work.

By submitting your idea/content for the competition, shortlisted and winning entrants agree to allow HP to publish their photographs/videos/text from presentations/designs or concepts presented (last in exact or in descriptive form), in print or electronic form, for editorial and promotional purposes, without any payment, for a period of three years from the date of declaration of the results. The images/videos/concept/text or descriptions of concepts will be reproduced and shared with due credit to the creators/participants for use across media.

Submission: You will be required to fill the registration page completely, with all the mandatory fields (marked by an asterisk) filled in.

If a presentation or video is being submitted as a part of your submission, files can be in pdf, jogs, or videos, but should not exceed 5MB in totality.

On selection, participants will be contacted to prepare and submit a presentation that will be required to be made to a panel of judges. Availability for this is highly encouraged. In case a participant can't attend a bootcamp in any city, HP will provide the option of pitching your project virtually.

Judging and Results: There will be a panel of judges appointed to make the shortlists and final selections.

Shortlisted participants will be contacted and will be expected to make a short presentation/ video of their concept, to be presented to a jury, within 3 minutes. A participant may choose to simply explain without photos or videos, but a visual presentation with slides and explanatory text, at the very minimal, is mandatory.

Shortlisted candidates will need to present their pitches during the city level, and again for final judging. The city level bootcamp is accompanied by a HP Masterclass, lunch, and refreshments. The schedule for the bootcamps is as follows:

- Hyderabad, 25th September
- Bangalore, 27th September
- Chennai, 10th October
- Mumbai, 18th October

Entries will be judged on the basis of relevance, interpretation, potential for impact, quality of the overall presentation, and quality and aesthetics of images, videos and designs involved in the presentation.

All official communication will be done on e-mail, through your officially registered ID. You are required to respond to emails within the next working day, with any queries or clarifications, and within three working days with all necessary inputs as requested.

Entrants may be contacted for a high-resolution or original version files of images (including photographs, graphics or illustrations), high-resolution versions of videos (Full-HD), or presentations, as well as and other identification/age/residence documents, etc. for potential shortlisting purposes during the competition or for authentication of identity or of submitted images/video.

The top nominees from each city/location will be asked to submit a portfolio of their work, details of which will be sent directly to them. Nominees must ensure that they respond timely, and need to be available by phone and email.

Entrants with the top ranking presentations/portfolio submissions from each city after the bootcamps will need to make themselves available to work on a final project. Failure to be available to participate in this final round automatically eliminates the entrant from being a winner. The entrant with the next highest number of points will then be automatically selected.

The decision of the judges will be final. HP will not enter into any correspondence regarding the judging or the organization of the competition.

Legal restrictions: The entrant must be the sole creator of his/her work and must also own the copyrights/rights to reproduction of all content entered into the contest. It is the legal responsibility of the entrant, and not HP Inc. to ensure that publication of said content by HP Inc. raises no legal claims.

HP will appoint a judging panel to determine the nominees and winning entries in each category, based on a final shortlist.

Noncompliance to the terms and conditions will result in immediate elimination of the image or disqualification from participation.

Governing Law: The participant(s) shall abide by all the laws of India and shall indemnify and hold HP India harmless in relation to any non-compliance by the Prize. The terms of this Rules and Regulations shall be construed in accordance with the laws of India and the courts of New Delhi have sole and exclusive jurisdiction.

Change of rules: HP India reserves the right to stop the campaign or change the terms and conditions of the campaign. In such a scenario, the revised terms and conditions will be updated on this page. HP India also reserves the right to cancel the competition if circumstances arise outside of its control.
